DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1-6, drawn to a method of inhibiting zinc release from neurons, classified in class 514, subclass 406.
 - II. Claims 7-19, drawn to a method of preventing zinc-mediated brain injury, classified in class 514, subclass 406.
 - III. Claims 20-27, drawn to a method of improving cerebral blood flow comprising administering an agent that increases endothelial nitric oxide synthase, classified in class 514, subclass 406.
 - IV. Claims 28-34, drawn to a method of improving cerebral blood flow comprising administering a pressor, classified in class 514, subclass 406.
2. Inventions I-IV are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different designs, modes of operation, and effects (MPEP § 802.01 and § 806.06). In the instant case, the different inventions I-IV are not related because they have different effects as Invention I is a method to inhibit zinc release, Invention II is a method to prevent zinc-mediated brain injury, and Inventions [III-IV] is a method to improve cerebral blood flow. Furthermore, the different inventions III and IV are not related because they have different designs as Invention III is a method to improve cerebral blood flow comprising an endothelial nitric oxide synthase, and Invention IV is a method to improve cerebral blood flow comprising a pressor.

Art Unit: 1617

Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and there would be a serious burden on the examiner if restriction is not required because the inventions require a different field of search (see MPEP § 802.02), restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

3. This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species:

- (1) several different agents that inhibit nitric oxide synthesis;
- (2) several different agents that increase eNOS activity;
- (3) several different causes of zinc-mediated brain injury;
- (4) several different surgeries; and
- (5) several different locations from where zinc is released.

If either Groups I, II, III, or IV is elected, applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species of (1) an agent that inhibits nitric oxide synthesis (including nNOS or iNOS), (2) an agent that increases eNOS activity, (3) a cause of zinc-mediated brain injury, (4) a surgery, and (5) a location from where zinc is released for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable.

Currently, claims 1-12, 14-22, and 24-34 are generic.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Art Unit: 1617

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which depend from or otherwise require all the limitations of an allowable generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103(a) of the other invention.

A telephone call to the attorney is not required where: 1) the restriction requirement is complex, 2) the application is being prosecuted pro se, or 3) the examiner knows from past experience that a telephone election will not be made (MPEP § 812.01). Therefore, since this restriction requirement is considered complex, a call to the attorney for telephone election was not made.
